PolarB's Mission - LOVE THE OCEAN

Winter was approaching. PolarB said good-bye to friends and boarded on a ship to North Pole. One night, the ship docked at a harbor. PolarB couldn't sleep, so he got off the ship and took a walk around.

Suddenly, PolarB saw a nearby factory secretly discharging sewage into the ocean. PolarB wanted to call the police, but was discovered by the guards. In a panic to escape, PolarB boarded a small boat and after a night on the run, PolarB was finally safe.

The sun slowly rose from the horizon, and PolarB was still drifting at sea aimlessly. He was a bit scared because he didn't know where he was going. Finally, PolarB saw a small island. He hope there might be someone on the island who could help him.

To his surprise, it was an "island" built from garbage! A little bird flew over and told PolarB about the sad story of her sea turtle friend, who often mistook and ate garbage bags for jellyfish and had stomach-ache for weeks. A while ago, the sea turtle was accidentally entangled in a fishing net and was still stuck there. PolarB was heartbroken. Marine pollution has become a serious threat to the environment and marine life.

PolarB promised to rescue the sea turtle, but this cannot be done by PolarB alone. It's time to call in the environmental fighters! The little bird volunteered to deliver the message to PolarB's friends.

Shortly after, the friends arrived to rescue the sea turtle and PolarB. They were shocked to see the huge "garbage island" in front of them and posted the photos online, causing a huge uproar on the internet. Volunteers gathered at the "garbage island" to remove garbage and demand the factory to stop discharging sewage into the ocean.

The ocean is broad and inclusive, but it is also helpless and needs love and care. It is everyone's responsibility to love and respect our one and only ocean.

In the shape of a cute animal, this excellent pull-along toy encourages babies to walk more and enhance their motor ability insensibly.
